

4th Young Jewish Adult Forum

Written by B'nai B'rith Europe

---

B'nai B'rith Europe has been organising a Young Jewish Adult Forum for the past three years for the age group of 25-35 years old.

During these Forums, the first one in Frankfurt, the second in Rome, and the third in Brussels more than 160 young Jewish adults, from over 25 European countries, had the opportunity to meet and take part in conferences and workshops that dealt with cultural, humanitarian and other vital issues of the day....

Among the distinguished speakers we had the pleasure to welcome were Mrs. Simone Weil and Mr. Arno Klarsfeld from France, Mrs. Esther Schapira from Germany, Chief Rabbi Bent Melchior from Denmark and Rabbi Awraham Soetendorp from the Netherlands.

These Forums did not only provide the opportunity to young adults many from Eastern European countries to meet and initiate cross boarder European friendships but also to discuss problems related to modern times and to discover the environment participants from other countries live in.

The 4th B'nai B'rith Europe Young Jewish Adult Forum in association with Augustin Keller Lodge will take place in Zurich from Friday 19th to Sunday 21 November 2010.

We are delighted to announce you that Hillel Neuer, Executive Director of UN Watch, will be the Guest of Honour for this 4th edition.

A more detailed program should be available in the very near future.

Registration is now open from our website. Do not hesitate to register as soon as possible.
